4. Appropriate samples of press or print media coverage artist has received.

SEDONA ARTS CENTER PROCEDURES

- Submissions are accepted year round.
- Jurying is based on artistic merit and gallery fit, professional display and "sale-ability."
- The Gallery Team approves all art for display and approves all replacement work.
- The Gallery Team will determine the appropriate place to hang and/or display all art.
- Art will be rotated on a regular basis. If a piece has not sold within six months, the artist may be asked to remove it or replace it with another piece.
- Artists will become "inactive" in the Gallery and will be asked to pick up their inventory from the gallery if they are not responsive to requests for new work, updated biographies or images of their work on a timely basis, allow Donorship to lapse/expire, or as sales warrant.

REQUIREMENTS/RECOMMENDATIONS FOR GALLERY ARTISTS:

- Gallery artists must maintain a Donorship with the Sedona Arts Center, currently $60 (Friend Level) minimum per year. Annual due dates are the date in which the Artist is accepted in the Gallery Shop.
- Artists are asked to update biographies and gallery portfolios (new photos, press, etc.) at least annually. Let us know your exciting news...the Center will use this information to market your work.
- Those artists who volunteer at the Gallery tend to enjoy greater sales – market yourself here!
- On-going demonstration possibilities exist. Please let us know if you are interested.
